

CONTENT PLAN SAMPLE

Placeholder PDF sample for a recent-grad portfolio

Objective

This sample represents the kind of internship or early-career content brief a candidate might create for a campus event, nonprofit campaign, or student organization launch.

Audience

Primary audience: students or community members deciding whether to participate.
Secondary audience: organizers, volunteers, and campus partners who need a consistent story.

Key Messages

1. Why the event or campaign matters right now
2. Who it is for
3. What makes it useful or worth attending
4. What action the audience should take next

Deliverables

Instagram captions
Email announcement
Event flyer copy
Short-form video concept
Talking points for student ambassadors

What This Sample Shows

Clear audience thinking
Message hierarchy
Practical channel planning
Ability to turn one idea into multiple assets

Editorial Direction

Keep the tone clear, energetic, and specific. Avoid generic promotional language. Every asset should help the audience understand why they should care and what they should do next.

Replace this placeholder with a real campaign brief, content plan, or event promotion document.